Demo Congressman Returns From Europe for Re-election Campaign

Congressman Cecil R. King returns this week, from Geneva, Switzerland, where he has been attending the world-wide meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, a standing committee of the United Nations.

Alfred Eachus, chairman of the King Re-Election Campaign Committee, announced that King will personally enter his re-election campaign with a heavy schedule of public appearances throughout the 17th District, including three debates with his Republican opponent.

KING, WHO IS a member of the House Ways and Means Committee, attended the Geneva Conference in his capacity as member of the U. S. Foreign Trade Policy Group.

The legislator represented United States interests at the world-wide meeting relating to import and export tariffs as they effect American business in the world markets, Eachus said.

KING ENTERS his campaign for re-election to the House of Representatives for a 10th term with a round of meetings and public appearances slated throughout the 17th District.

The first major event, Eachus announced at a dinner in honor of the congressman, scheduled for Oct. 15 at the Cockatoo Inn, Hawthorne, sponsored by the Democrats of the 17th Congressional District. King will speak on world and domestic affairs as related to his district.

THREE DATES have been set for debates with Tom Coffe, his Republican opponent, King's District office announced.

The first is slated for Oct. 19 at the South Bay meeting of the United World Federalists.
The subject will be U. S. Foreign Policy.

The other debates with Coffee will take place at the Candidates' Night meeting of the El Segundo Business and Professional Women's Club, and the meeting of the Palos Verdes League of Women Voters organization.

IN ADDITION to nearly 100 talks booked for the legislator, Eachus released a partial list of Congressman King's appearances during the next few weeks.

King will introduce Mrs.
Eleanor Roosevelt to a meeting of the 17th District Democratic Women's clubs to be held Monday, Oct. 17 at the Retail Clerks Hall in Lomita.

THE SAME evening he will be guest of honor at the Kenedy-Johnson district headquarters in the Plush Horse Inn.

Some major speeches by King are slated for the Inglewood Rotary Club; Cenineia Valley Research Assn., Westchester; World War I Veterans Organization, San Pedro; Inglewood Chamber of Commerce and the District Student Congress in Gardena. No appearances in Torrance, the district's largest city, were announced.

Medical Center Plans Polio Clinic Saturday

Another in a series of polio inoculation clinics will be conducted Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Robert Delaplaine Medical Center, 198 E.
Carson St. Dr. Delaplaine is chairman of the clinic. Cost of the inoculations is $1 each.
